"DANDERINE"
Grows Thick, Heavy Hair 35-cent Bottle Ends all Dandruff, Stops Hair Coming Out

Ten minutes after using Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them, helping the hair to grow long, strong and luxuriant. One application of Danderine makes thin, lifeless, colorless hair look youthfully bright, lustrous, and just twice as abundant.

CITY CLAIM LAWYER SEIZED IN DRY FRAUD

Edward Mass, Examiner, Accused in Scheme to Forge Permits.
2 ALREADY ARRESTED

Fake Scrip Stamps Found With Coloring Matter in Brooklyn Raid.
LIQUOR WITH DRY GOODS

Two Held in Chicago Said to Be Implicated in $50,000 Bribe Offer.

Agents under Hugh McQuillan, chief of the special intelligence unit of the Internal Revenue Bureau, yesterday arrested Edward Mass, a claim examiner in the Corporation Counsel's office. He is charged by the Federal authorities in Chicago with alleged complicity in a forged liquor permit conspiracy.

Two other men, William McAuley and Nathan Epstein, accused of a share in the efforts of the group to obtain several thousand cases of whiskey, have been arrested in Chicago for an alleged attempt to bribe an Assistant United States Attorney with $50,000.

Maas has been in the Corporation Counsel's office for eighteen years. He lives at 230 Seelye street, Brooklyn. Mc-Quillan's men arrested him after a telegram was received from Col. Ernest Shaw, chief of the intelligence service in Chicago, saying that a warrant had been issued. Maas was held in $10,000 bail by United States Commissioner Hitchcock, pending removal proceedings.
Maas and Epstein were in the custody of the Chicago police until Monday, when he will try to turnish security.

Yellowley's Name Forged.
The permits used in the operations, said Mr. McQuillan, bear the forged signature of E. C. Yellowley, acting State prohibition director. Comparison of the serial numbers of these permits with those recently issued from the director's office here showed the numbers to be the same as those on several which were issued from Mr. Yellowley's office a few days ago to small, reputable dealers for small amounts of alcohol.

Chief McQuillan believes the amounts were raised, and the word whiskey substituted for alcohol. It is possible, however, he said, that the permits are complicated. There are seven of them, all in the hands of the Chicago authorities.
Four are said to have been in the possession of Maas in Chicago on November 14.

The agents were searching for a fourth man yesterday, also a New York resident.
Forgery of script stamps such as are used in sealing bonded whiskey and violation of the Volstead act were charged against Joseph Emig, 74 First place, Brooklyn. He was arrested by Detective William H. McDonald and arraigned before United States Commissioner Barnore in Brooklyn, who held him in $2,500 bail.

Stamps were found at the defendant's home, 37 Woodhall street, together with bottles of alcohol and coloring matter.
Many of the names of well known brands of whiskey.
Liquor Sold in Dry Goods Store.
Sadie Zimmerman, 21, of 615 Marcy avenue, Brooklyn, was arraigned before Magistrate Gelemer in the Coney Island court on a charge of selling liquor in a dry goods store. She was held in $500 bail for a hearing. It is charged that Miss Zimmerman sold an eight ounce bottle of whiskey to Detective Lau and Craddock while employed in a store at Shore road and Sheepshead Bay road.

Federal agents Kerrigan and McMillan, in evening dress, with two women, visited the Clarendon Inn, Broadway and 135th street, on Friday night, and drastically took, later changing their orders to whiskey, which they say was served to them. Morton Lein, manager, and a waiter were ordered to appear before United States Commissioner Hitchcock.

OFFER U. S. ATTORNEY BRIBE OF $50,000
Two Held in Chicago in Whiskey Probe.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
Chicago, Nov. 19.—William McAuley and Nathan Epstein, arrested here today, were said by Harry L. Brin, Assistant United States Attorney, to have offered him a $50,000 bribe for protection in the removal of 87,000 gallons of liquor from warehouses. Forged permits for this amount were in their possession, Mr. Brin said. Each was held in $10,000 bonds.

A report was current that a $50,000 bribe had been offered to John K. Kjellander, prohibition chief of Illinois. The report also stated that the emissary to Mr. Kjellander came from McAuley and Epstein in the person of a young woman.
Both McAuley and Epstein were said to have confessed to being agents for a clique of prominent men in Chicago and New York. They named their principals, Mr. Brin said.

Several weeks ago Mr. Brin received word that two men from New York wanted to "talk business" with him.
He thought they might want to talk concerning the case against Sergeant Mitchell and Smale, indicted for conspiracy to violate the prohibition laws.
After pointing out that Mr. Brin was in a position to block any interference with bootleggers, McAuley is said to have offered to the Federal attorney $50,000 to guarantee protection and the release of 87,000 gallons of liquor, valued at $2,088,000, "drug store prices." Epstein, it was said, was to bring forged permits from New York, turn them over to Mr.
Brin, and Mr. Brin was to see to it that necessary names and data were correctly filled in. At the same time he was to get $25,000 of the $50,000, the rest to be forthcoming when the booze had been successfully run through to the East.

At conferences with McAuley and Epstein Mr. Brin was accompanied by "a friend," Col. Earnshaw. The two agents are said to have assured Col.
Earnshaw that he would be "taken care of."

Epstein finally arrived in Chicago with the fake permits and Mr. Brin was notified to come and get them and the $50,000. McAuley and Epstein were in a room in the Great Northern Hotel.
Mr. Brin and Col. Earnshaw responded to the summons. With them went a detail of Federal secret service men.
McAuley, Epstein, fake permits and money were seized.

2 SHOT, 4 CAPTURED IN BOOTLEG BATTLE
State Troopers and One Prisoner Wounded.

PLATTSBURGH, N. Y., Nov. 19.—Four alleged bootleggers, captured after an all night chase in which State Trooper Fred Waterman and one of the prisoners were wounded, were lodged in jail here to-day in default of bail.
The fight took place at Mucoos, on the Canadian line. Waterman was on the track of two of the band, who are alleged to have abandoned a carload of whiskey when the officers sighted them.
Waterman fired at Charles Lajoie, one of the suspects, but missed. When Lajoie grappled with the officer the latter shot him through the hand. In the struggle Waterman's gun was exploded, again, the bullet entering the officer's leg.

In addition to Lajoie the men under arrest gave their names as Alexander Boyer, Alexander Verdo and James Powers, all of Montreal.

LIQUOR LOST ON SHIP; REGAN ASKS $15,000
Insurance Company Is Sued in Supreme Court.

The adventures and perils of the sea are blamed by James B. Regan, formerly proprietor of the Hotel Knickerbocker for the loss of $15,000 worth of whiskey and champagne brandy which he possessed once, but has no longer.
He wants an insurance company to pay for it, according to a policy which he looked out in January, 1920, just before shipping the wet goods overseas on board the freighter Wakula.

He filed an action in the Supreme Court yesterday demanding that the Washington Marine Insurance Company reburs him for the lost liquor. His complaint rests upon the material allegation that the liquor was destroyed "by the perils of the sea." The policy he had looked out provided that the company did not provide against theft, and Regan is powerless to claim that the brandy and whiskey were stolen.

The papers on file give no intimation of the condition of the crew when the Wakula reached France, and are silent also on the point of whether the liquors were packed away in a way to resist the craving of men or to incite it. Regan says his consignment was lowered into the ship was of the value of $25,000. He demands that his insurer pay him $15,000, which is less than the value of his liquor now, but its value at high noon the day the Wakula sailed.

DRY RAIDERS CAPTURE 150 GALLON RUM STILL Found Hidden in Garage in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 19.—A still declared to be the largest ever found in operation in Philadelphia was seized today by Federal prohibition agents in a raid on a downtown garage.
The still had a capacity of 150 gallons. It has been in operation several months, the agents said, and it is believed to have been the source of much of the moonshine liquor supplied to the older saloons in the tendorin district.
A warrant was issued for Benjamin Hermer, alleged proprietor of the garage.

STRIKE ABOUT OVER, MILK BOARD REPORTS
All Companies Nearer Normal on Deliveries.

Figures made public yesterday by the New York Milk Conference Board indicated that the milk distributors rapidly are bringing their business back to a normal basis. The Board's Farm Products Company was reported to have had 1,700 of their 1,850 wagons on the streets and Sheffield Farms Company, a total of 700 out of 1,250.
The Empire State Milk Producers Company was reported to have had their entire wagon force out.
"As far as the public's interests are concerned," a statement of I. Elkin Nathans, secretary of the milk board, said, "it would seem that the strike situation is quickly passing. There is sufficient milk for all consumers in large quantities for those who require it, and it is being handled with the consummate care characteristic of the handling of milk in this city."

One striker was sent to jail for ten days, three others for five days each and two were put on probation for a year by Magistrate McClosky in Flatbush Court.

SCHOOL HOLDS BANQUET.
The Thomas Hunter Association of Grammar School No. 25 held its twenty-fifth annual banquet and reunion at the Astor last night. Addresses were made by Rt. Rev. Bishop Gailler, presiding bishop of the Episcopal Church; Chancellor Elmer Brown of New York University and Dr. John H. Finley.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The disturbance that was over the Mississippi Valley last night moved rapidly northeastward to Quebec this morning. The disturbance over the Mississippi Valley and all districts east thereof except along the Atlantic coast, and it has been followed by decidedly colder weather over the Gulf States, the Mississippi, Ohio and Missouri valleys and the region of the Great Lakes. Another disturbance is approaching the north Pacific coast attended by rain in Oregon and rains and snows in Washington and Idaho. Pressure is high and rising over the middle West, with the center of maximum pressure over the upper Missouri Valley. The coldest weather of the winter so far prevailed to-day over the Northwest, the lowest temperature being 29 degrees below zero at Havre, Mont.
The outlook is for generally fair weather to-morrow and Monday in the States east of the Mississippi, except that rains are probable in Florida and local snows near the Great Lakes. The temperature is decidedly lower to-morrow in practically all districts east of the Mississippi River, the fall in temperature amounting to a cold wave in the Atlantic States except Florida.
